

International Team Coaching for Youth Workers

How to protect young people from being radicalized?

Counteracting hate speech and fake news.

14 – 21. 11. 2021, Poznań/Poland

Sun. 14.11

Arrival of the participants

A communication on the rules and safety related to the COVID 19 pandemic

Mon. 15.11

8:15 Breakfast

Warm-up game – Polish group

9:00-11:00 – Presentation of the international team realising the project;
Organisational issues. Programme description.

Visualisation of wishes and expectations of the participants.

11:20 – 13:30 – Presentations of given partner organisations (field of work, experience, target groups etc.)

14:00 Lunchtime

15:00 – 16:00 Introduction to the topic. General exchange of experience and good practices in the methods of recognising populist content.

Day summary and reflection time

17:30 Culture evening – presentations of cultures of given countries

18:30 Dinner

Tue. 16.11

8:15 Breakfast

Warm-up game – German group

9-12:00 Workshops/Prelection – Creating of definitions: hate speech, hate, fake news, radicalism, populism etc. How they work and what tools are used by the populist movements to propagate their ideas. How to protect the youth against this content.

12:20 – 13:50 Tools and portals supporting the web users in discovering the true information – workshops in international groups, exchange of good practises amongst the participants.

14:15 Lunchtime

15:00 – 16:30 Workshops - "Face of All". Critical Thinking as a Form of Self-Defence in Social Media Face of all.

16:30 Break

16:45 – 18:00 continuation of the "Face of All" workshops. Critical Thinking as a Form of Self-Defence in Social Media Face of all.

18:30 Dinner

Reflection and informal conversations time.

Wed. 17.11

8:15 Breakfast

Warm-up game – Italian game

9-12:00 Workshops – When and how to react to cases of radicalism and intolerance on the Internet – reasons and consequences (case study).

13:00 Lunchtime

Departure to Poznan

Sightseeing the „Entangled in the ecosystem” exposition in the F. Chopin Park

Sightseeing Poznan with a guide

18:30 Return to Gultowy

19:15 Dinner

Thu. 18.11

8:15 Breakfast

Warm-up game- Greek group

9-12:00 Practical workshops – Getting to know the Internet tools and filters allowing to fact-check information and reach the truth. The participants get to know various methods of sorting information in the media and on the Internet.

12:20 Workshops/prelection – Critical thinking as a tool supporting sorting information in the media and on the Internet

13:30 Lunchtime

14:30 Stereotypes and prejudice as one of the sources of aggression and violence in the media

16:00 Exchange of good practises amongst the participants – How to contradict populism and hate speech?

Reflection time.

An evening by the fire for all

19:00 Dinner

Fri. 19.11

8:15 Breakfast

Warm-up game – Georgian group

9-12:00 Workshop – Creating false messages and content by the youth, which violate the rights of others. Legal regulations concerning the protection of human rights on the Internet - prelection and moderated discussion.

(11:00-13:00 The practical usage of the acquired knowledge – presentation of the topic for the youth group lead by chosen participants from various countries.)

13:30 Lunchtime

14:30 Rules and legal considerations in the countries participating in the project concerning the protection of dignity and human rights on the Internet – an exchange of experience amongst the participants.

Free time. A possibility of a trip to Poznan.
An evening spent together

Preparation of the Europass CV and Youthpass certificates

18:30 Dinner

Sat. 20.11

8:15 Breakfast

Warm-up game – Ukrainian group

9:00 A discussion on the experiences and good practises in the field of European Solidarity Corps.

10-11:00 Preparation of the Europass CV and Youthpass certificates

11:15-12:15 Evaluation of the project;

13:00 Lunchtime

14:00 Free time. A possibility of a trip to Poznan. Shopping, souvenirs etc.

18:30 Ending party

Sun. 21.11

7:15 Breakfast

Departure of the participants